One Happy Easter Morning

It was quiet on that Sunday morning.
The sky held a hint of dawn.

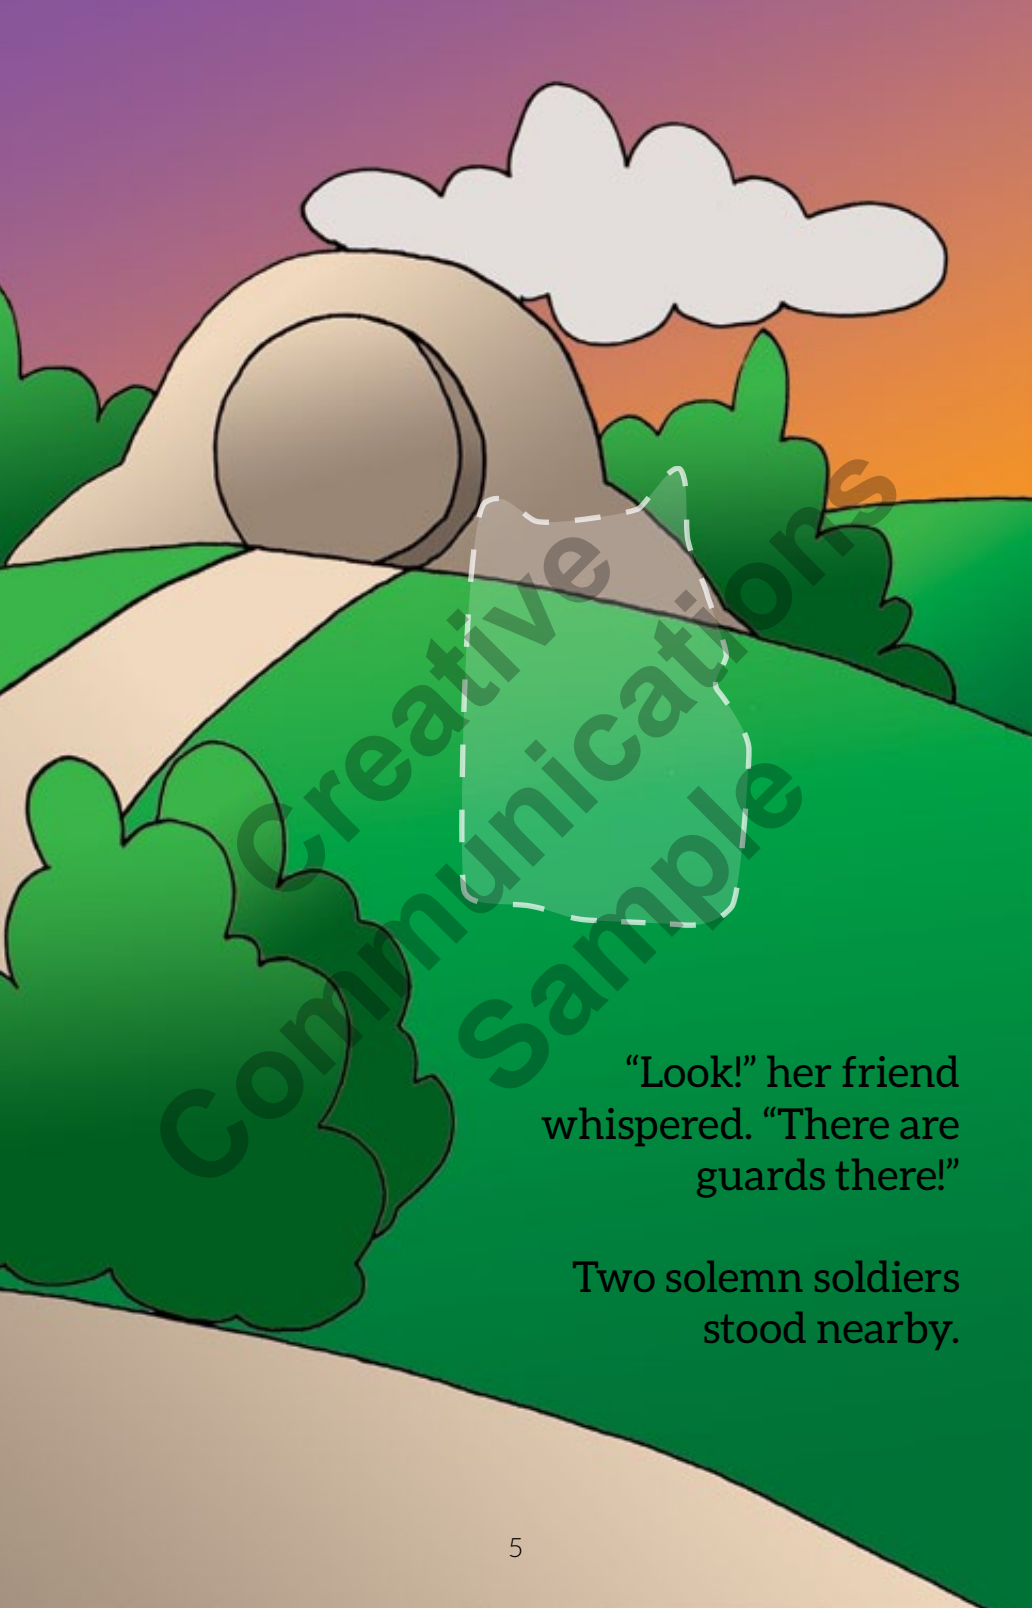

Jesus had died three days before.
His body had been carefully laid in a tomb.

Mary Magdalene and Mary,
James' mother, were walking to the tomb.

As Jesus'
good friends, they were heavy with sadness.

Mary Magdalene said, "We'll need help moving the huge stone in front of the tomb."

“Look!” her friend
whispered. “There are guards there!”

Two solemn soldiers
stood nearby.
