WHAT'S THE WORD?

In next Sunday's Gospel, Jesus' interaction with the crowd left them with some serious questions about Jesus' grasp of reality. How could this man be the "bread of life"? The "living bread"? Rejecting the unknown, the different, results in a lost opportunity to learn from them. Jesus spent his life teaching, and his message was different, sometimes radical.

ENRICH MY SPIRIT

Looking back at my life, I know God has taught me to...

LORD JESUS, I PRAY...

Help me to know how I can teach others about...

WHAT'S THE WORD?

Modern 4-wheel-drive vehicles may have no problem navigating the rough, dry, mountainous terrain in Jesus' part of the world, but Isaiah's words still have a message for us today. Is there anything you can do to contribute to the fulfillment of Isaiah's prophecy? How will your life announce the salvation of God?

ENRICH MY SPIRIT

When I speak to others about Jesus, I want them to know...

LORD JESUS, I PRAY...

May words and actions reflect your love for all of creation. Amen.

Good News travels...

WHAT'S THE WORD?

The women who went to Jesus' tomb on Easter Sunday were puzzled to see the giant stone had been moved away from the entrance, and Jesus' body was gone. Two men in dazzling garments delivered the news that Jesus was alive, reminding them that Jesus himself had predicted this event. Peter, of course, had to see for himself. Jesus rose from the dead, a fact that transcends all human explanation.

ENRICH MY SPIRIT

I think the most puzzling thing about Jesus' death is...

LORD JESUS, I PRAY...

You have risen, Lord Jesus. My heart is filled with joy. Amen.

WHAT'S THE WORD?

Sunday's Gospel story takes place on Easter Sunday, the first day of the week. Before Jesus' appearance, the apostles weren't sure what they believed. Although Thomas gets the blame for doubting Jesus is truly alive, all the apostles were doubters until they saw Jesus in their midst, a genuine reason for rejoicing. They all spent the rest of their lives sowing that faith in a world of doubt no matter what the cost.

ENRICH MY SPIRIT

The most joyful thing about Easter is... because...

LORD JESUS, I PRAY...

When I am doubtful and afraid, strengthen my faith. Amen.
