From the Bible

Help the shepherd bring the lost lamb back to the flock.

Luke 15:1-7

Listen to Mary

There was a wedding in Cana in Galilee, and the mother of Jesus was there. Jesus and his disciples were also invited...

[Mary] said to him, "They have no wine." —John 2:1-3

The two pictures are not quite identical. Can you spot the 12 differences?

No wine at a wedding was like no pizza at a party—no fun, and a bit embarrassing. Mary didn't get upset though. She simply told Jesus about the problem and sent the servers to his aid. At first he didn't seem to want to do anything, but then he revealed his glory and performed his first miracle.

It's hard to look at suffering and even harder to do something about it. Like Mary, we can trust in God's care, tell Jesus about the problem and do what we can. If we do, we may witness something wonderful too.

The conversion of St. Paul

Imagine you are a reporter from the Damascus Daily News a few years after Jesus had risen from the dead. Gather the missing details of the story by reading Acts 9:1-19.
