Footsteps to the Cross

Jesus called his disciples to follow. He calls you to follow too. He faithfully journeyed to the cross to pay the price to save us. He walked out of the tomb on Easter morning to pave the way to everlasting life for us all.

God so loved the world he made that he sent his only Son. Jesus came to lead the way back to heaven for everyone. I will follow him each day. Jesus is the only way.

See this donkey, small and meek? Who would ride on such a thing? Not the Savior of the world; surely not the King of kings! Humble donkey, small and grey, you will bring the King today!

Little children wave and sing. Coats and branches line the way. People cheer to see the King. "Come and save us," they all say. Jesus comes for me and you! We can shout "Hosanna" too.

Run to see him Easter morn.
He has risen from the dead
and will lead us on the path
unto heaven as he said.
Step by step he is the Way.
I will follow every day.
