 Encountering Christ in Charles Dickens' A Christmas Carol
 By Michael Hoy

Reflect on actual passages from A Christmas Carol by Charles Dickens in a way that ties the transformation of Ebenezer Scrooge to our journey of faith. In the same way that Scrooge moves from crusty curmudgeon to kindhearted gentleman, revealed most clearly in his change of heart toward Tiny Tim, so we move from enemies of God to friends through the birth of the little Lord Jesus, who came to save us from our past and present that we might be blessed in all our future days.

My Very Own Christmas Carol Storybook

Discovering the Christchild of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come

By David Mead

Introduce children to the characters in Charles Dickens' beloved story, A Christmas Carol, in a way that places new focus on the true past, present and future of Christmas joy—our Lord Jesus. Just as Ebenezer

Scrooge was changed by looking back, looking around him and looking to the future, we can all celebrate the Advent truth that Jesus was welcomed long ago in a Bethlehem stall, is welcome each day in our hearts and has promised to one day welcome us to our heavenly home. Included is an accompanying activity sheet used to create a Christmas Carol playset. Each day of December, the Christmas characters share how God blesses us and prompt us to be a blessing to others. Ages 5-12.

Waiting in the Light
Daily Prayers for Advent
By Steve Givens

Sometimes, Advent can seem like a dark and dreary time of year. We may have less daylight or become more stressed by the hustle and bustle that is all around us. And without Jesus, we are a people in darkness. But, when we look to the Advent wreath in hope, we become a people of light. In Waiting in the Light, author Steve Givens provides an inspiring prayer, accompanied by Scripture, for each day of the season. Being attentive to prayer and God's Word allows us to see the light shining through the darkness. Through prayer and reflection, we more clearly see Jesus, the Light of the World, this Christmas.

On the Road to Bethlehem

A Pop-Up Window Calendar for Advent

By David Mead

Discover the path to the Bethlehem manger as you mark the days of Advent with this unique pop-up window calendar. When Advent begins, lay the calendar on a table or mantelpiece. Each day of December, lift up a numbered window. What will pop up? A shepherd or sheep? An angel or Wise Man? Perhaps the Bethlehem stable! When Christmas arrives, an entire nativity scene appears where there once was an empty road, a wonderful reminder that God called the world to seek out the Savior born in Bethlehem.

Up Above Bethlehem

A Pop-up Window Calendar for Advent

By David Mead

When Advent begins, lay this unique calendar on a table or mantelpiece. Each day of December, lift up a numbered window. What pops up? A shepherd or sheep? An angel or Wise Man? Perhaps a sky filled with angels! When Christmas arrives, an entire nativity scene will appear where there once was a scene of the empty Bethlehem hills, a wonderful reminder that Jesus was born to fill our emptiness with love and hope eternal. Look up to the skies! Listen up to the angels' message! Lift up the flaps and welcome our Lord, Jesus.

12 Days of Christmas

A Pop-up Window Calendar for the Christmas Season

By David Mead

When Christmas Day arrives, the celebration is just beginning! Start a new window calendar tradition, one that keeps the Christmas joy going and glowing all the way to Epiphany. Lift up a numbered flap each day from December 25 to January 5, the 12 days of Christmas, and watch what appears as shepherds, angels and wise men come with good gifts to share. As the Christmas season ends, the star appears, completing the scene that can be displayed throughout the season of Epiphany.

ADVENT WINDOW CALENDARS

Open a different "window" each day of December to reveal a CHRISTIAN IMAGE. No Santa Claus, elf or snowmen to be found here, these calendars have a picture and a Bible passage behind each window. The back leads your young people on an "Advent Treasure Hunt" each day with a question, a riddle or a fill-in-the-blank ... answered or filled in when you open the window on the other side. Great gift ideas for the church or Sunday school teachers to kick-off the Advent season or for class parties. 9¼" x 12½" Envelopes sold separately.

My Very Own Christmas Carol Storybook

Discovering the Christchild of Christmas Past, Present and Yet to Come

Introduce children to the characters in Charles Dickens' beloved story, A Christmas Carol, in a way that places new focus on the true past, present and future of Christmas joy—our Lord Jesus. Just as Ebenezer Scrooge was changed by looking back, looking around him and looking to the future, we can all celebrate the Advent truth that Jesus was welcomed long ago in a Bethlehem stall, is welcome each day in our hearts and has promised to one day welcome us to our heavenly home.

Included is an accompanying activity sheet used to create a Christmas Carol playset.

Each day of December, the Christmas characters share how God blesses us and prompt us to be a blessing to others. Ages 5-12.

A Penance Service for Advent

This penance service for Advent uses the readings for the Third Sunday of Advent (Cycle A). Our experience of sin is like being caught in a trap, a cycle of behavior that we can't seem to avoid or get beyond. Jesus has come into that very circumstance to set us free from all that oppresses us, including feelings of hopelessness and despair. This service is designed to include the individual reception of the Sacrament of Reconciliation. Each order includes a copy of the rubrics for presider and readers.

Pocket Prayers from Living Faith: Mary

By Karla Manternach

Reaffirming the long Catholic tradition of praying for the intercession of Mary, the Mother of God, these prayers help readers to bolster their relationship with the Blessed Virgin Mary, growing closer to her son as well. As with all Marian devotion, we are gently and lovingly being guided to Jesus through Mary. This convenient booklet is evergreen and can be relied upon again and again.

Pocket Prayers from Living Faith: For Times of Loss

By Connie Clark

In times of sorrow, people naturally place their trust in a loving God. In seeking healing, they often don't quite know where to turn or what to say. This set of prayers and reflections for people dealing with grief can be powerfully healing, letting them know that God—and others—are walking with them. A natural handout by the parish surrounding a funeral.
