From Suffering to Salvation

Lenten Devotions
Inspiration from Henri J. M. Nouwen • Christopher Klofft

An invaluable guide for Lent, these devotions allow readers to recall how Jesus willingly suffered to open the door to our Salvation.

Each Lent, we are called to prayerfully consider that sacrificial love, receive it, share it and demonstrate it to others. A spiritual icon of the 20th century, Henri Nouwen wrote about this love which continues to captivate millions. In these pages, Nouwen excerpts are accompanied by Scripture passages and original reflections composed by author Christopher Klofft.

Treasure in Jars of Clay

Family Devotions and Activities for Lent

By Steve and Sue Givens

The season of Lent provides the perfect time for families to reflect from where true fulfillment and peace comes. Throughout the season, as throughout our lives, it is Christ who works to fill the empty vessels of our hearts and we discover "...we have this treasure in clay jars, so that it may be made clear that this extraordinary power belongs to God and does not come from us" (2 Corinthians 4:7). That power, that forgiving love, is ours to share.

Catholic Prayers for Lent
Mary Marrocco

Each Lent we vow to practice a more focused and formal prayer life. But, as the days go by, we can falter and perhaps lose track of our commitment in the midst of a busy life. This daily guide, in only a few minutes a day, helps you to stay on track all season long. With Scripture and heartfelt prayers, you'll be able to approach Easter with the teachings and actions of Jesus foremost in your mind. During Lent, we suffer with Jesus but then are ready to joyfully celebrate his triumph over sin and death at Easter!

For God So Loved the World
Devotions drawn from John 3:16
By Carol Geisler

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world, so that all who believe in him will have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world. See matching coin on page 19.

The Saving Passion
Lenten Devotions
Inspiration from Henri J. M. Nouwen

Henri J. M. Nouwen, one of the most beloved spiritual thinkers of the 20th century, wrote about the saving passion of God's Son in a way that has captivated and inspired readers the world over. Excerpts from Nouwen's engaging insights are paired with original reflections and prayers in this booklet for each day of Lent, as we journey together through this season of sacrifice and marvel at the salvation our Savior won for us.

EASTER DEVOTIONS

The Healing Marks of Jesus

Reflections on the Power of the Risen Christ

By Michael Hoy

In these 40 devotions for the Easter season (from Easter Sunday through Ascension Day) or for a season of grief after a loved one has died, author Michael Hoy focuses on the marks on the risen Christ as revealed to the disciples after his resurrection. These marks are symbols of the redemptive power to bring wholeness and healing to the very real physical, emotional, spiritual and societal wounds present in our own lives as Easter people. These enduring marks of the crucified and risen Christ serve to encourage and strengthen us as we move forward in our faith, away from his death and the painful loss of loved ones and toward the perfect glory yet to be revealed in heaven.

Passover Potluck!
 Lenten Lessons and Activities for Children
 By David Mead
 Through rhyming stories and simple activities, children learn the exciting Lenten lesson that God keeps his promise to save us! God saved his people from captivity in Egypt, and through Jesus' sacrifice, we are saved from sin. The stories of the First Passover, the Passover Meal and Jesus' Special Supper provide a full plate of Lenten lessons about God's saving love. Ages 3-8.

Lent Is A-Maze-Ing!
 Devotions for Teens and Young Adults
 By Peter and David Mead
 The season of Lent starts where most other journeys end: where X marks the spot. But this dark ashen cross that is placed on our foreheads is not the treasure we seek. Our great prize is the one our Savior made, a most difficult journey to claim for us. These brief daily devotions provide a simple roadmap for youth as they follow where Jesus leads. Our Savior skillfully navigates the pitfalls of sin and temptation that trip us up, and he brings us at last to his cross, and then, a-maze-ingly, on to the open tomb. Ages 13-20.

My Hidden Alleluia!

An Activity Sheet for Lent and Easter

The tradition of hiding the Alleluia during Lent is back in a whole new way! Press out this sun-shaped Alleluia card at the beginning of Lent. Each week, families are asked to fold back one ray of the sunburst, hiding a letter of the word ALLELUIA. On the back of each letter is a simple activity families can do together each day of that week. As Holy Week arrives, the image of a tomb appears. But when Easter arrives and the rays are hidden, it's time to turn the sunburst over and reveal the bright Alleluia once more and forever!

My Hidden ALLELUIA!

NEW

There is a word which Christians bury for Lent. We don't write it, speak it or even whisper it. It is written on this centerpiece at the beginning of Lent.

FIGURE #1

On Ash Wednesday fold back the first colorful A to reveal the first week of devotions (FIGURE #2). Do these daily Lenten activities together with your family.

FIGURE #2

As the weeks of Lent pass, you will see that the special word becomes more and more hidden. In Holy Week the word will be completely hidden, and Jesus' tomb will be revealed (FIGURE #3).

FIGURE #3

On Easter, turn the centerpiece over (FIGURE #4). The happy word is revealed at last. Celebrate our risen Savior!

POP-UP WINDOW CALENDARS

My Holy Week Journey
A Pop-Up Window Calendar
By David Mead

Follow Jesus on his journey through Jerusalem during Holy Week. Children love to open windows which reveal colorful scenes of Jesus' journey. Each day leads him closer to the cross and ultimately to the open tomb of Easter Day. Perfect for a morning and evening prayer activity as two windows per day are opened to reveal Jesus' great gift of love. Ages 5-12.

Stations of the Cross
A Pop-Up Window Calendar
By David Mead

As children follow Jesus and pray the Stations of the Cross, they can use this pop-up window calendar to keep track of their journey. At each of the 14 stations, open a numbered window to reveal the hidden picture and prayerful message. The pictures help to tell the story of Jesus' journey to the cross in our place. A 15th station has been added to celebrate our Savior's glorious resurrection. As you reach the end of this prayerful journey, thank Jesus for his gifts of love and forgiveness.

Lift High the Cross
A Pop-Up Window Calendar for Holy Week and Easter

Follow Jesus on his journey to the cross this Holy Week with this unique pop-up window calendar. On Palm Sunday, lay this calendar on a table or countertop. Each day of the week, lift up a pair of numbered windows. What will pop up? A humble donkey? Our Lord praying in the garden? A soldier by the cross? When Easter arrives, an entire Resurrection scene will appear where there once was an empty road, a wonderful reminder that Jesus calls us to take up our cross and follow him, through Holy Week and every day of our lives.
9¼" x 12½" • Code DGL

Rise Up and Shine!
A Pop-Up Window Calendar from Ascension to Pentecost

Celebrate discipleship and continue the Easter blessing through Pentecost Sunday. The countdown begins on Ascension Day as a large window is opened to reveal our ascending Lord. Each day after, lift up a flap and learn about the first disciples and the gifts and messages they shared. Finally, on Pentecost, the Spirit's flame is revealed, a reminder that our hearts are burning with the desire to share the good news of Jesus' love and forgiveness. As the Pentecost season starts, we rise up and shine his light to the world.

From Palms to Passion Devotions for Holy Week

By Carol Geisler

It all happened in one week, the seven days we now call Holy Week. God's plan of salvation, set in motion so long ago, was accomplished. The Son of God fulfilled the purpose for which he had come. The Lamb of God was sacrificed for the sins of the world, for our sins. With these devotions, follow Jesus through the astonishing events that took place in one week, from Palms to Passion.

Stations of the Cross

Cross Examinations
Stations of the Cross
By James E. Adams

Cross Examinations immediately brings readers closer to Christ as they experience a more personal way of praying the Stations of the Cross. Designed for individual use, this booklet helps us to better understand the Lord's Passion since the reflections are in the form of Christ speaking from his heart. Inspired by Scripture and tradition, Cross Examinations prompts personal reflection and silent meditation. Let these moving words and images spiritually guide you on your way—and, along the Way of the Cross!

Crossroads
Stations of the Cross for Times of Change
By Steve Givens

Praying the Stations of the Cross is a Lenten tradition that asks us to recall Jesus' suffering and to reflect upon our own lives. This booklet is tailored to those who are facing major transitions in their lives. Whether approaching retirement, an "empty nest" or any dramatic change, you can welcome your new life with greater joy, having grown closer to our risen Savior.

By Your Cross and Resurrection
By Fr. Martin Pable, O.F.M. Cap.

The Stations of the Cross have been a popular devotion for Catholics for centuries. This booklet by Fr. Martin Pable captures perfectly the fourteen scenes that follow the journey of Jesus as he carries his cross, is crucified and died. Devout Christians are drawn to meditate on these scenes in order to draw strength to continue their own spiritual journey.

JOHN 3:16 DEVOTIONAL BOOKLET

For God So Loved the World

Devotions drawn from John 3:16

By Carol Geisler

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world, so that all who believe in him will have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world.
