Lent Is A-Maze-ing

Devotions for Teens and Young Adults

By David and Peter Mead

The season of Lent starts where most other journeys end: where X marks the spot. But this dark ashen cross that is placed on our foreheads is not the treasure we seek. Our great prize is the one our Savior made a most difficult journey to claim for us. These brief daily devotions provide a simple roadmap for youth as they follow where Jesus leads. Our Savior skillfully navigates the pitfalls of sin and temptation that trip us up, and he brings us at last to his cross, and then, a-maze-ingly, on to the open tomb. Ages 13-20.

My Hidden Alleluia!

An Activity Sheet for Lent and Easter

The tradition of hiding the Alleluia during Lent is back in a whole new way! Press out this sun-shaped Alleluia card at the beginning of Lent. Each week, families are asked to fold back one ray of the sunburst, hiding a letter of the word ALLELUIA. On the back of each letter is a simple activity families can do together each day of that week. As Holy Week arrives, the image of a tomb appears. But when Easter arrives and the rays are hidden, it's time to turn the sunburst over and reveal the bright Alleluia once more and forever!

My Hidden ALLELUIA!

As the weeks of Lent pass, you will see that the special word becomes more and more hidden. In Holy Week the word will be completely hidden, and Jesus' tomb will be revealed (FIGURE #3).

On Easter, turn the centerpiece over (FIGURE #4). The happy word is revealed at last. Celebrate our risen Savior!

Backpack Blessing Event Kit

Here is a Blessing of the Backpacks you can do in church at the start of the school year to remind students that God blesses them each day of their lives as they reach out in faith as a blessing to others. This kit includes instructions on coordinating and presenting this 10-minute event, a script to use to bless the backpacks, a children's sermon and tear-off notes for parents to put in their children's backpacks and 10 luggage tags for the children to attach to their backpacks that celebrate—as in Philippians 4:13—that all we do, we do through Christ!
