a) Children's Devotional These daily devotions by Stephenie Hovland teach children about Jesus' family tree, a tree that tells the Old Testament history leading up to Jesus' birth and about our salvation story. We sometimes call this family tree the Jesse Tree, named after one of Jesus' very faithful ancestors. The branches of the Jesse Tree stretch all the way back to the garden of Eden, and in those branches you'll find familiar names like David and Ruth, Abraham and Jacob. When God sent Jesus to be a child in Bethlehem, we were made a part of the great, growing family tree, too. Ages 6-10.

Throughout the four Sundays of Advent and Christmas Day, the story unfolds in simple-to-do children's messages for classrooms or worship settings. Branch out this Advent... with the Jesse Tree!

There's something for the whole family in this collection of Advent products that both teach and delight.

As foretold in the Old Testament, God promised us a Savior. Follow the salvation story forward with every Jesse Tree product. Use the visuals of the tree and branches to trace the family line of Jesus. Be amazed to learn that through Jesus, we are made part of God's family too.

How to use these pieces together:

Introduce & Teach the Message

Use the Children's Sermons as a springboard to teach 5 messages through Advent and Christmas Day! The message is told through object lessons for a children's church or thematic unit in Sunday School or mid-week ministry.

Reinforce the Message

Colorful bulletins illustrate the lessons and engage learning with activities. Children can complete the activities as a group, at home with parents or independently in the pew.

Build excitement with activity sheets that give each child a tree to assemble and grow through the season. Each day, children look forward to adding to their tree throughout Advent.

Send the Message Home

Get the whole family involved with a daily message from the Children's Devotional and give Praying The Jesse Tree to the adults to pray through too!

The message for all to see ...

Through Jesus, we all have a place in God's family tree.

For Personal Reflection

In this deeply personal and encouraging book, best-selling author and beloved pastor Fr. Joe Kempf takes an honest look at the complexities of forgiveness. With Fr. Joe's signature heart and humor, he gently reminds us that "forgiveness is not optional for those who want a joy-filled, meaningful life. It is essential to our souls; it is the heart of truly holy and happy living." Filled with stories of real-life situations of hurt and betrayal, Fr. Joe asks the difficult questions about what it takes to truly forgive someone, and when and how to give ourselves the space to heal in the arms of our loving God.

Often we struggle to find the words to converse with God. A prayer committed to memory and recited every day can help. Words written on our hearts become a part of who we are. Each time we recall a prayer to life, we step into the life of the prayer. In his reading of some classic Catholic prayers, Michael Swan delves into how the prayers we hold in our memories are essential to our spiritual identity.

Penance Service "Be watchful!

Be alert!" With these words from the Mass readings for the first Sunday of Advent, Year B, Jesus urges us to heighten our awareness of what really matters in life. Though we all want to share in the joy of the Christmas season, too often we are weighed down by a sense of our failings, by shame and guilt that stifles our spirits. To experience the lightness of being truly forgiven, the Church offers the Sacrament of Reconciliation. This service provides for the individual reception of Confession. Each order includes a copy of rubrics with Scripture passages.
