God Made My Mom

You are a gift. A gift from GOD.

That can be an easy thing to forget, Mommy ... in between preparing meals, working, driving the family taxi, cheering at schoolyard athletic events, staying up all night caring for a sick child, shopping and dressing and cleaning. “Being God’s gift” probably doesn’t make it to your daily “to do” list very often.

And that’s okay. Because, whether you recognize it or not, you really are God’s very special gift to your family.

Of course, remembering that simple fact might change things—the way you act ... the way you feel about what you do from day to day.

And so, this little booklet is offered as a gift for YOU, God’s special gift. May it help you remember who and whose and what you are. You are a gift ... from GOD!

My mom is the best mom because she teaches me everything
there is to know about life and she tells me she loves me.

MATTHEW 23:37

See, I have inscribed you on the palms of my hands.

ISAIAH 49:16

And now faith, hope, and love abide, these three; and the greatest of these is love.

1 CORINTHIANS 13:13

Dear God
bless my mommy
in the things that she does bless her for making us safe by keeping food in our stomachs and clothes on our back also a roof over our head .

Naudia

He will feed his flock like a shepherd; he will gather the lambs in his arms, and carry them in his bosom, and gently lead the mother sheep.

ISAIAH 40:11

A Name Change

There was a day when I made the monumental shift from calling my mother “Mommy” to calling her “Mom.” That name change somehow signified to me a change in our relationship. “Mommy,” to me, meant someone who was there to take care of my every need, clothe me, feed me, read me stories and tuck me into bed at night. “Mom,” to me, was another way of saying she was a friend, a confidant, a source of wisdom and a guide. So it was that, on a certain day, I said “Hey, Mom!” for the first time to the woman who gave me birth, and she has been “Mom” to me ever since.

How it is.

I'm a tummy-tickler,
And a wiggly-giggler,
And a rock-to-sleeper,
And a rhymy-reader,
And a swingy-swingler,
And a funny-feeder,
And an upside-downer,
And a splashy-sprinkler,

But I'm not mommy.

I can settle for a distant second.
