Stations of the Cross

a) Classic Stations of the Cross

Cross Examinations immediately brings readers closer to Christ as they experience a more personal way of praying the Stations of the Cross. Designed for individual use, this booklet helps us to better understand the Lord's Passion since the reflections are in the form of Christ speaking from his heart. Inspired by Scripture and tradition, Cross Examinations prompts personal reflection and silent meditation.

32 pages • 5 3/8" x 8 3/8" • Code CECL

b) Stations of the Cross for Times of Change

Praying the Stations of the Cross is a Lenten tradition that asks us to recall Jesus' suffering and to reflect upon our own lives. This booklet is tailored to those who are facing major transitions in their lives. Whether approaching retirement, an "empty nest" or any dramatic change, you can welcome your new life with greater joy, having grown closer to our risen Savior.

c) Traditional Stations of the Cross

The Stations of the Cross have been a popular devotion for Catholics for centuries. This booklet by Fr. Martin Pable captures perfectly the fourteen scenes that follow the journey of Jesus as he carries his cross, is crucified and died. Devout Christians are drawn to meditate on these scenes in order to draw strength to continue their own spiritual journey.

32 pages • 5 3/8" x 8 3/8" • Code ST7

d) A Contemporary Way of the Cross

The Lenten season invites us to contemplate and enter more deeply into the Paschal mystery of Jesus' suffering and death through praying the Stations of the Cross. This centuries-old practice is made fresh and new by Sr. Chris Koellhoffer, as we remember not only the Jesus of history but Jesus as he lives in lives broken and wounded in this time and place.

c)

e) For Kids! This Way of the Cross, written by Sister Mary Terese Donze, A.S.C., is designed for use by pre-teens. Illustrated for young readers, Step Up Close to Jesus has 15 practical, clearly written meditations on Christ's Passion, Death and Resurrection. It may be distributed by pastors or by schools as a prayer book for young Catholics during Lent.

32 pages • 5 3/8" x 8 3/8" • Code CEZ

f) For Teens! Catholic youth will respond to this Way of the Cross written by Amy Welborn, a syndicated columnist and author of several books for young Catholics. Presenting each of the traditional stations with a brief meditation and prayer, Welborn addresses the concerns and hopes of young people in a simple, direct style. Illustrations by Sally Beck capture the somber yet hope-filled mood of this devotion.

Walk in Jesus' footsteps as we pray the Stations of the Cross. This traditional Lenten prayer practice follows the journey of Jesus as he carries his cross to the Hill of Calvary, where he was crucified and died for us. Creative offers a variety of titles—for all ages—that reflect upon the Stations and will touch the hearts of your parishioners—either as a group devotion or for individual meditation.

Pop-Up Stations of the Cross

As children follow Jesus this year and pray the Stations of the Cross, they can use this pop-up window calendar to keep track of the journey. At each of the 14 stations, open a numbered window and look for the picture and prayerful message hidden inside. The pictures help to tell the story of Jesus' loving journey to the cross in our place. A 15th station has been included to celebrate our Savior's glorious resurrection.

Devotions for Holy Week

It all happened in one week, the seven days we now call Holy Week. God's plan of salvation, set in motion so long ago, was accomplished. The Son of God fulfilled the purpose for which he had come. The Lamb of God was sacrificed for the sins of the world, for our sins. With these devotions, follow Jesus through the astonishing events that took place in one week, from Palms to Passion.

The Healing Marks of Jesus

Reflections on the Power of the Risen Christ

By Michael Hoy

In these 40 devotions for the Easter season (from Easter through Ascension) or for a season of grief after a loved one has died, author Michael Hoy focuses on the marks on the risen Christ as revealed to the disciples after his resurrection. These marks are symbols of the redemptive power that brings wholeness and healing to the very real physical, emotional, spiritual and societal wounds present in our lives. These enduring marks of the crucified and risen Christ encourage and strengthen us as we move forward in our faith.

In honor of the 25th anniversary of the death of beloved author and spiritual master Henri Nouwen, this new series embraces five of his most essential teachings. Now more than ever, the church and the world need a fresh perspective on the transformative power of Christian spirituality. Spiritual master Henri Nouwen offers this hope for renewal, speaking to the heart of today's believers. Perfect for personal meditation or group study, with questions for reflection and meaningful conversation. Each booklet includes a facilitator's guide.

Each title 32 pages plus cover • 5 1/2" x 8 1/2"
