LIFTED UP in LOVE

THE SIXTH WEEK IN LENT

A JOURNEY OF LOVE

Melody: God Loved the World

Sing or speak in unison:

God loved the world so that he gave
His only Son, so that the lost might be saved.
That all who would in him believe
Should everlasting life receive.

¶ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
that whoever believes in him may have eternal
life.

¶ Jesus continues on his great journey toward the cross
as God's Word.

¶ Jesus is the ground of faith,
Who was made flesh and suffered death.
All then who trust in him alone
Are built on this chief cornerstone.

THE FIFTH WEEK IN LENT

PROTECTED IN LOVE

Melody: God Loved the World

Sing or speak in unison:

God knew the world so that he gave
His only Son, so that the lost might be saved.
That all who would in him believe
Should everlasting life receive.

¶ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the
wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
that whoever believes in him may have eternal
life.

¶ The hand of Jesus shields us from dangers.
¶ By the blood of Jesus we find a place for us to be the members of Jesus.

¶ Christ Jesus is the ground of faith,
Who was made flesh and suffered death.
All then who trust in him alone
Are built on this chief cornerstone.

THE FOURTH WEEK IN LENT

CONTAGIOUS LOVE

Melody: God Loved the World

Sing or speak in unison:

God knew the world so that he gave
His only Son, so that the lost might be saved.
That all who would in him believe
Should everlasting life receive.

¶ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the
wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
that whoever believes in him may have eternal
life.

¶ The love of Jesus has the capacity to capture the hearts of others.

¶ Because Jesus doesn't love reluctantly on the basis of the words we say.

¶ Christ Jesus is the ground of faith,
Who was made flesh and suffered death.
All then who trust in him alone
Are built on this chief cornerstone.

THE THIRD WEEK IN LENT

RESTORED IN LOVE

Melody: God Loved the World

Sing or speak in unison:

God knew the world so that he gave
His only Son, so that the lost might be saved.
That all who would in him believe
Should everlasting life receive.

¶ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the
wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
that whoever believes in him may have eternal
life.

¶ Jesus showed the power and might of God's love.
¶ By the cross, the earth trembled, thunder sounded around the world.

¶ Jesus is now our new self-renewed. Christ restored us to the right relationship with God through the cross.

¶ We are forgiven and live forever-ever to see because of Jesus' perfect love.

THE SECOND WEEK IN LENT

THE POWER OF LOVE

Melody: God Loved the World

Sing or speak in unison:

God knew the world so that he gave
His only Son, so that the lost might be saved.
That all who would in him believe
Should everlasting life receive.

¶ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the
wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
that whoever believes in him may have eternal
life.

¶ Jesus showed the power and might of God's love.
¶ By the cross, the earth trembled, thunder sounded around the world.

¶ Christ Jesus is the ground of faith,
Who was made flesh and suffered death.
All then who trust in him alone
Are built on this chief cornerstone.

THE FIRST WEEK IN LENT

REACHING OUT IN LOVE

Melody: God Loved the World

God loved the world so that he gave
His only Son the lost to save.
That all who would in him believe
Should everlasting life receive.

¶ Just as Moses lifted up the serpent in the
wilderness, so must the Son of Man be lifted up,
that whoever believes in him may have eternal
life.

¶ God reached down in love to give us his Son.

MONDAY, THE FIRST WEEK OF LENT

The View from Our Knees

For I do not do the good I want, but the evil I do not want is what I do. Now it is no longer I who do it but sin that dwells within me. Romans 7:19-20

*When we dare to care, then we discover that nestling human is foreign to us, but that all the hatred and love, cruelty and compassion, fear and joy can be found in our own hearts. (Henri J. M. Nouwen, Our Own Latitude, 42)*

It is tempting to glide past passages like Romans 7:19-20, for these words confront us with reality: the reality of our sin. They are Lenten words, yes. But they speak of our sinful condition in every season of the year. Part of the work of Lent is to bring us back again even to this hard truth. Lent brings the truth of sin into sharp focus. Lent takes us to our knees. And by God's grace, we discover that we see more clearly on our knees than we do on our feet.

We see ourselves more distinctly with the help of Scripture and teachers and mothers in the faith. We understand that God always sees the truth about us. "While we still were sinners..." St. Paul reminds us (Romans 5:10). Still, Christ came. Still, Christ comes. Still, Christ speaks to us of the world in us. Still, Christ speaks his word. "Come."

*Christ is still talking to the world in us and to the world through us. For that, we give him Lenten thanks. On our knees,*

Holy God, help me to stay on humble Lenten knees throughout the year. Amen.

TUESDAY, THE FIRST WEEK OF LENT

Woe

Woe to you, scribes and Pharisees, hypocrites! For you are like whitewashed tombs, which on the outside look beautiful but inside are full of the bones of the dead and of all kinds of uncleanness.

Matthew 23:27

*Often you will catch yourself wanting to receive your loving God by putting on a semblance of beauty, by holding back everything dirty and spoiled, by clearing just a little path that looks proper. But that is a fearful response—fearful and artificial. (Henri J. M. Nouwen, With Open Hands, 17)*

After the Fall into sin, Adam and Eve hid from God in Eden, afraid and ashamed (Genesis 3:8). It was the first fearful response in humankind's relationship with our God. Sadly, it was not the last. Over time, we have become more refined in our fear. The forced and artificial fearful response is designed to trick the Lord, and fool us. Woe to us!

God came in the person of Jesus Christ. He was often received with a first-century version of Nouwen's words. Christ saw the truth. We are walking naked—dressed in such finery—walking death, attired with a wardrobe of fake beauty, presenting what was untrue as though it was verity of verity about ourselves. Woe to us!

It can be hard to trust. It feels risky. Can we reveal our true selves and not be misled? Yes, when the one we trust is the Lord. Yes, when we understand that Christ saw through to our true selves. Yes, when we, on our knees, understand this nevertheless, Christ came among us, for us. He came to save us, to turn death to life.

Jesus, your love for me is unfathomable. May the Spirit work a Lenten work of stripping away deadly pretense and returning me to you, trusting. Amen.

Who Is Jesus?
Reflections on the Identity of Christ
by Carol Geisler

Jesus asked his disciples for popular opinions concerning his identity and received a variety of answers. Still today, Jesus is a controversial figure of history. Was he merely a prophet, a miracle-working rabbi, a good teacher or a mere example to follow in life? World religions offer different opinions concerning the person of Jesus. But Jesus had much to say about his own identity. After hearing the opinions suggested by his followers, Jesus asked them, "But who do you say that I am?" That is a question that each of us must answer. Who is Jesus? This short booklet by Carol Geisler helps guide readers to the true biblical answer to the question of his identity.

My Marian Book of Daily Prayers

Curated by Pat Gohn

The life of a Catholic is called to be grounded in daily prayer. Here's a handy pocket-sized booklet that finds its inspiration in Mary, the Mother of God. Mary's heart was so close to Jesus during her life on earth, and it still is today. That's why she is a perfect prayer companion. THE SEDER MEAL

Why Do We Observe This Feast?
...Then [Jesus] took a loaf of bread, and when he had given thanks he broke it and gave it to them, saying, "This is my body, which is for you. Do this in remembrance of me." ... And he did the same with the cup after supper, saying, "This cup that is poured out for you is the new covenant in my blood."
—Matthew 26:26-28

A meal to celebrate and remember the deliverance of the Children of Israel from Egypt.

What is the Seder?
...which is to say, "you shall be delivered from the Egyptians." ... And when you break the bread, and when you break the matzah, and when you dip the bitter herbs, and when you eat the Pascal lamb, and when you eat the unleavened bread, and when you drink the wine, then you shall say, "This is the Passover sacrifice which our God has commanded us to keep, in commemoration of the deliverance of the Israelites from Egypt, and in commemoration of the deliverance of the Israelites from slavery."

What is the Cup?
...the first three cups of wine are to be drunk before the Pascal lamb, and the next three cups are to be drunk after the Pascal lamb. ... The fourth cup is to be drunk after the Pascal lamb, and the fifth cup is to be drunk after the Pascal lamb.

What is Matzah?
...the unleavened bread, which is to say, "you shall be delivered from the Egyptians."

What is Charoset?
...the sweet mixture of apples, cinnamon, and nuts, which is to say, "you shall be delivered from the Egyptians."

Each day of Lent is something like a step along a path, a path that leads to Easter. This small book will help children get to know Jesus a little better as they make their way to understand his suffering on Good Friday and celebrate his rising on Easter Sunday. Each day, a special passage from Scripture tells about an event in Jesus' life or a key Lenten theme. A footprint sticker marks the path to the cross each day and brings readers a step closer to our Savior.

On this Lenten sticker booklet journey, children discover that through the saving grace of God's Son, Jesus, we are led from slavery in sin and death into freedom and life everlasting. The colorful cut-out centerpiece is used as a "map" that is marked along the way with the stickers in this Lenten "guidebook."

Gather 'Round the Cross

This Lent, children and families will gather around the cross, but they will not be alone. The daily devotions in this sticker booklet will introduce them to the characters who gathered with Jesus as he journeyed through Jerusalem toward Calvary. Throughout Lent, children will read verses from Matthew's Gospel and place a sticker on the easy-to-assemble cross centerpiece. Each day they will gather in Jesus' name to learn about his act of saving love.

For God So Loved the World

Devotions drawn from John 3:16

The few words of John 3:16 are sometimes called "the Gospel in a nutshell." These devotions explore the verse that so well sums up the unexpected, self-sacrificing love of God for the world he created. The sign of the cross, an instrument of violence and death, has become for us a sign of forgiveness and life. God sent his Son as the Savior of the world so that all who believe in him will have eternal life. That is how God so loved the world.
