Coordinate your message

Start your Advent planning by selecting from one of our two newest Advent collections. The Premier Collection is anchored in writings by Henri Nouwen. The Family Celebration Collection (see pages 6-7) pairs devotions with family-friendly activities. Each offers a coordinated assortment of devotionals, keepsakes and handouts that extend the season, enrich the experience and focus our energies on the One who loves us most. All items are designed to be used and sold separately but when bundled together, offer additional savings and deeper focus.

Time for a Savior

This coordinated collection of Advent products teaches and delights. When the time had fully come, God sent his Son as our Savior. These resources make time in children's ministry special in Advent.

How to use these pieces together:

Send the Message Home

Children's Devotional God made a promise long ago. A child will be born. A Savior is coming! With the daily devotions in this booklet for the season of Advent, children are encouraged to take just a few minutes each day learning the wonderful news that God's Son, our Savior, is delivered to us right on time! Perfect for children, ages 6 to 12, and their families.

Reinforce the Message

Advent Activity It's time for Advent—time to pray, time to prepare, time to count the days until the Savior arrives! Each day of the season, press out the numbered circles on the easy-to-assemble Advent wreath. Move the Mary and Joseph figures along the swirling path, closer and closer to the center of the wreath, and closer and closer to Christmas Day! On December 25, it's finally time. Jesus is added to the Advent scene as we celebrate the day of his birth in Bethlehem. Cutting is required. Ages 6-12.

Advent Window Calendars

Open the windows! Count the days! This beloved tradition enhances the excitement and expectation of the season.

NEW!

Advent Window Calendars Open a different "window" each day of December to reveal a Christian image. No Santa Claus, elf or snowmen to be found here. These calendars have a picture and a Bible passage behind each window. The back leads young people on an "Advent Treasure Hunt" each day with a question, a riddle or a fill-in-the-blank that's answered or filled in when you open the window on the other side. Great gift ideas for church or Sunday school teachers to kick-off the Advent season or class parties. 9¼" x 12½". Envelopes sold separately.

a O, Holy Night! Join with Mary, Joseph, shepherds, donkeys, camels and sheep on the path to Bethlehem to see the newborn King! Throughout December, open up the numbered windows to reveal prayerful poems about each new visitor. When Christmas arrives, look to see the colorful scene and the baby wrapped in cloths and lying in the manger! Ages 5-12. Cardstock • 12½" x 9¼" • Code ALAX b Open Before Christmas! There is so much to see, to say, to sing about as we prepare to welcome God's promised Savior. There's no need to wait until Christmas Day to start the celebration. Each day of December, open up a window on this tabletop display to discover items from the nativity scene. Then open your eyes, ears and hearts to welcome baby Jesus! Ages 5-12. Cardstock • 12½" x 9¼" • Code ACAK c How Lovely Are Thy Branches Decorating an evergreen tree is a familiar Christmas tradition, one that can share the story of our salvation. Each day of Advent, open the ornament windows on this pop-up tree—a tree that points to heaven—and discover the meaning of the symbols as they pop up throughout the season of Advent. What will appear? A snake, an apple, a candle, a dove? Each ornament helps to tell the story of God's love. A love that leads us on the path to heaven above. Cardstock • 11" x 17" • Code DGG d Up Above Bethlehem When Advent begins, lay this unique calendar on a table or mantelpiece. Each day of December, lift up a numbered window. What pops up? A shepherd or sheep? An angel or wise man? Perhaps a sky filled with angels! When Christmas arrives, an entire nativity scene will appear where there once was a scene of the empty Bethlehem hills, a wonderful reminder that Jesus was born to fill our emptiness with love and hope eternal. Look up to the skies! Listen up to the angels' message! Lift up the flaps and welcome our Lord, Jesus. Cardstock • 11" x 17" • Code DGK e 12 Days of Christmas When Christmas Day arrives, the celebration is just beginning! Start a new window calendar tradition, one that keeps the Christmas joy going and glowing all the way to Epiphany. Lift up a numbered flap each day from December 25 to January 5, the 12 days of Christmas, and watch what appears as shepherds, angels and wise men come with good gifts to share. As the Christmas season ends, the star appears, completing the scene that can be displayed throughout the season of Epiphany. Cardstock • 9¼" x 12½" • Code DGM

b

c

d

Do You See What I See?

Seek & Find Devotions for Advent

With so many activities this time of year, sometimes the real reason for the holiday celebration is hard to see. But "seeing" is what this unique Advent devotional book is all about. The pictures tell the story of God's gift for us, but the clues that point to that gift—the gift of the Christ Child—are hard to see among all the other holiday objects. The story of God's love for us is there, though—in the midst of all the other items—just as God is always there. Each day in Advent, read a devotion and then look for an object. Can you find them all? Do you see the story? Do you see what I see? Perfect for children ages 5 to 11.

Reflexiones para el Tiempo de Adviento
By Marina A. Herrera, Ph.D.

Now that Pope Francis invites us to live a "great 'symphony' of prayer [to] recover the desire to be in the presence of the Lord, to listen to him and worship him," this little Advent book helps us lift our hearts to the Father preparing for the birth of his Son, Jesus. The prayers contained here are based on the "O Antiphons" or Major Antiphons that are traditionally recited by the Catholic Church in the days around Christmas.

Celebrate First Communion in classrooms or throughout your parish

First Holy Communion All Over Again

Encourage Eucharistic Revival in the parish with a remembrance on the beauty of one's own First Communion. Here are a few simple steps to renew our reverence and appreciation for the Lord's Supper. Each year, usually on a weekend after Easter, young children in churches around the country celebrate their First Holy Communion. With this tri-fold leaflet, the whole parish can rekindle the excitement and wonder of receiving the Body and Blood of Jesus Christ for the first time. A wonderful way to highlight Holy Communion revival throughout the church.

If These Were Silent
Reflections on Life,
Death and Resurrection
By Carol Geisler

In cemeteries, the verses and memorials engraved on monuments and headstones cry out in witness to the faith and hope in which these believers lived and died. These devotions are based on those engraved words of witness. Perfect for remembering our Easter hope or for those who have recently lost loved ones.

And Give You Peace
Words of Comfort
at a Time of Grief
By Arden, Peter &
David Mead

The devotions and prayers in this small booklet are not to be read straight through...or even daily. They are TOPICAL, and are to be read at the very specific times when they are the most appropriate: when the family feels like a loved one is really gone for good, or when the holidays leave one especially lonely, or when the funeral food is all eaten, or after the first genuine laugh following the death.
