CROWN HIM with MANY CROWNS

A Sticker Book Activity
for the 40 Days of Lent

Our King is coming! He comes to save his people.
He comes to forgive, and he comes to free.

We know who that King is. It is our Lord and Savior, Jesus Christ. This Lent we'll learn how our King came to share the gifts of God's kingdom with us. We'll learn how to shine like jewels in our King's crown.

On Ash Wednesday, assemble the crown from the accompanying punch-out sheet. Every weekday in Lent you will read a devotion and Bible verse, place a jewel sticker on your crown and learn the lessons our King teaches us. On Easter Sunday, wear your crown to church and worship our risen King!

Dear Lord Jesus, you gave your life so that I can be alive with you eternally. I'll shine just like a jewel for you in what I say and what I do. Amen.

1. Made in His Image

Ash Wednesday

Read Genesis 1:26-31

God is the King of heaven and earth.
The world was made at his command.
But when God dreamed of Adam and Eve,
God formed them with his own two hands.
And in God's image, they and we are all God's children! Royalty!

2. Jewels in the King's Crown

Thursday

Read Zechariah 9:16

A King is coming. Have you heard?
The prophet Zechariah tells:
"The Lord our God is on the way
to save his people, Israel.
And when he comes, we'll all bow down
and shine like jewels in his crown."

3. Greatest in the Kingdom

Friday

Read Matthew 18:1-5

God's kingdom comes! It's here, right now!
And we're all called to be a part.
Our Lord and Savior tells us how.
"You have to have a childlike heart.
Believe in God as children do,
and God's good kingdom is for you!"

4. Kids of the Kingdom

Saturday

Read Matthew 19:13-14

The children came to see the King.
He called them all to gather in.
But some said, "Children should not be allowed to sit and worship him."
The King said, "Let the children come.
My kingdom is for everyone!"

5. Carved in Stone

Monday, Week 1

Read Exodus 34:27-28

God gives his children rules, you see.
But people sin. It's sad but true.
We try to do things our own way.
We don't do what God wants us to.
Dear God, forgive us, please, we pray,
for all the times we disobey.

6. The Golden Rules

Tuesday

Read Mark 12:28-34

Some people asked the Lord one day,
"What is the most important thing?
What rule must everyone obey
to satisfy our heavenly King?"
He said, "Love God above all else.
And love your neighbor as yourself."

7. What Kind of King?

Wednesday

Read Luke 4:14-20

"What kind of king has come?" you ask.
He comes to help us, one and all.
He comes to make the blind man see.
He comes to raise the meek and small.
He comes, just as God said he would,
to save as only Jesus could.

8. Kingly Blessings

Thursday

Read Matthew 5:1-5

When Jesus spoke, the people came to listen close to his good news. He taught them of the blessings which the Lord bestows on me and you. "God bless the meek and sad and poor. They have a heavenly home in store."

9. More Kingly Blessings

Friday

Read Matthew 5:6-9

God's blessings are like precious gems. He showers them from up above. God fills the hungry in their need. God loves all those who share their love. And to the peaceful and the pure— God's kingdom is for them, for sure.

10. Even More Kingly Blessings

Saturday

Read Matthew 5:10-12

Some people may say hurtful things to tease and taunt and bring you down. They say you shouldn't love the King. They do not want to wear the crown. Keep serving God, and you will be blessed in his home eternally.

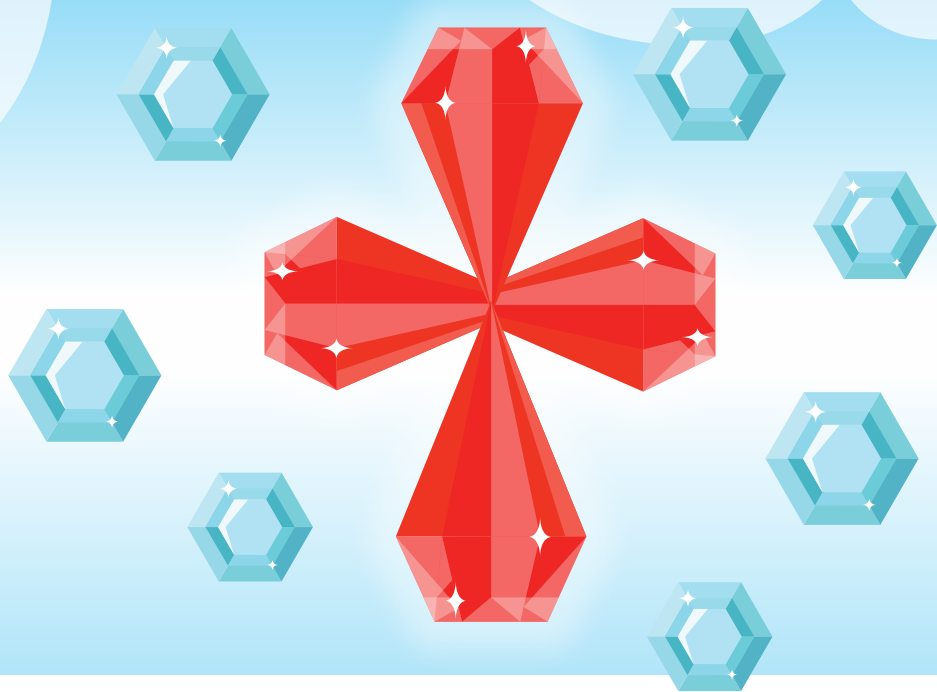

41. Our Risen King

Easter Sunday

Read Matthew 28:5-10, 16-20

Look at the tomb. He is not there.
Our King has risen. He's alive!
And through this wondrous miracle,
our King gives us a heavenly prize.
Now we can shine like precious gems
for him forever and ever. Amen.
